Prof. Arthur Wright

March 17, 1953

Dear Arthur,

I wouldn't call this scholarship; on the other hand, I'm not sure it is junk. Perhaps you might give me a name for it, so that I can dispose of it.

I have not had time to incorporate des Rotours' Traite, nor have I cited Max Weber's literati study, the latter being only slightly relevant.

Many thanks.

Sincerely,

AL

P.S. The local government material is hopeless, but I'm not sure that the only remedy may be Mary's magnum opus or several doctoral dissertations.
