Announcing a proposed GENERAL CONFERENCE ON THE SCIENCES OF CATASTROPHES
with especial reference to the works of Immanuel Velikovsky

to be held at Princeton University
Princeton, N.J., on either June 24-6, 1977
(Fri.-Sun.) or July 8-10, 1977 (Fri.-Sun.)

You are cordially invited to attend the numerous lectures and small discussion groups dealing with outstanding problems in the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences not yet treated in the literature and bringing the general subject of the sciences of catastrophes up to date with the latest developments. Lectures, discussions, and reports will be conducted by outstanding writers and researchers in the various fields . . . The all-inclusive fee for three full days and evenings of proceedings, meals, lodging on campus and post-conference publications is $142.00. (Add $10.00 each for extra lodging the Thursday night before and/or the Sunday night after the conference, if desired. Youths aged 18 and under, one-half price.) A total of twenty-seven (27) Participation Hours is planned! . . . If you think that you would attend, please fill out the note hereunder and mail it to us. If enough persons indicate their probable attendance, we shall go ahead and plan the conference. At that time we shall send you all the information that you may need for a final decision. Although we are asking your serious consideration, you are of course in no sense obligated by your expression of interest. Furthermore, if you cannot commit yourself even tentatively at this time, but wish to reconsider in the future, we shall be in touch with you later with just that prospect in mind. Thank you.

Dear Professor de Grazia:

So far as I can tell at this time, I shall be able to attend the proposed General Conference on the Sciences of Catastrophes, to be held at Princeton University next summer.

My name (printed) is Dr. Arthur J. Schneider

My address 1816 Anchovy Avenue, San/Pedro, Calif. Zip 90732

I would also like to add the following comments and questions for your consideration as plans move forward.

The equal age of the 'new' world of the Americas with the 'old' world of the Near East, geologically, anthropologically, & culturally

I also believe an invitation would be appreciated by

(Name) Mrs. Valerie Pritchard (Address) 131 Ladera Lane, San Clemente, Ca 92672

also: Dr. Rowland M. Myers 67 Perry St., New York, N. Y. 10014

Sincerely yours,
Arthur J. Schneider
