Dear Bill:

I am sending you herewith a memorandum on the idea of a YPO Competition which we invented in your office.

There is also enclosed some information on what I've been up to over the years. It slights the musical and poetic achievements that hover behind my interest in the arts, but it's better than the Who's Who account.

I hope that we can talk on the telephone, and get together before long.

Sincerely yours,

Alfred de Grazia
