

for in Mazzeo

Planning and Social Invention

A series of ^{six} ~~five~~ lectures to be delivered by Professor Alfred de Grazia, Professor of Government at New York University and Editor, The American Behavioral Scientist, at the Istituto Universitario di Scienze Sociali di Trento, Dec. 1-15, 1963.

I. American Theories of Invention, Planning, and Liberty. Microscopic and Macroscopic Social Invention.

15 pages

II. ~~the~~ Ideology as Invention: Utopias, Marxism, Nazism; ~~the~~ the Juridical Ideology and Bureaucratic

III. Invention in Economic Organization: ~~Problems of~~ Capitalism and ~~the~~ Socialism as Social Structure & Process

~~Invention in Economic Organization: Problems of Capitalism as a Social Structure and Process~~

IV. The ~~Analysis~~ ^{Design} of Governmental Institutions

V. Myth, Social Morale, and Invention

VI. The Development of ~~Research in Methods of~~ Leadership

~~VIII. Innovation and Drive: The Sources of Rational Change in the World Modern World.~~

75 pages